

A Membership
That Gives Back

Mile High Youth Corps' Building Blocks brings together a diverse group of individuals for a major giving initiative that is committed to informational triple impact on youth, community and the environment. Building Blocks members are vital to our success as an organization and demonstrate shared values of youth development and empowerment, education and workforce development, as well as environmental stewardship.

Commitment from Building Blocks members allows MHYC to provide access and opportunities to young adults at a critical stage in their lives through the vehicles of service, conservation, education and self-awareness.

As a Building Blocks member, you have committed to an annual personal gift of $1,000 or more separate from contributions made through special events including event sponsorship, ticket sales, and auction purchases.

Membership Benefits

- 2 tickets to Building Futures-Mile High Youth Corps' signature fundraising event
- Name recognition in the Mile High Youth Corps Annual Report
- Volunteer opportunities-participate in volunteer activities working directly with Corpsmembers
- Exclusive invitations and updates from the CEO
- Building Blocks lapel pin
- Denver Enterprise Zone Tax Credit ($250 or more are eligible for the Denver Enterprise Zone (DEZ) tax credit. The DEZ credit is a 25% credit on state incomes taxes meant to encourage job creation and capital investment in economically depressed areas of the state.)
